

WAYNE'S WORSHIP WORLD

SOME of the most talented singers and musicians from the Christian music scene in Britain and America have joined forces to support Wayne Drain on his latest album.

The well-known worship leader – who has been part of the Pioneer network for many years – finished recording a 'best of...' selection towards the end of 2006.

The result – Treasures – was made with the help of such popular artists and session players as Les Moir, Neil Costello, Caroline Bonnett, Phil Madeira, Noel Richards, Brian Houston, Sue Rinaldi, Mal Pope, Stuart Townend and Dave Bilbrough.

'I'm so grateful to have had some of the most talented musicians and singers around to work with on these recordings,' said Wayne.

He had chosen ten of his favourite tracks from his previous albums Sweet Rain, Come Away and Hurricane – a recording he formerly made with Noel Richards and Brian Houston as The Hudson Taylors.

The latest selection also includes a new version of a song by Noel and Wayne called I'm Crying Out, originally included on Noel's Calling All Nations CD. In addition, there is a brand new track, Inside Out.

'The new song seems to capture where I'm at currently,' said Wayne. 'There's a fresh tug on my heart to realise how much need surrounds us. My growing conviction is it's time to release the

Good News from inside the walls of the Church and take it outside.'
